Regulation Uniform for Umpires

The official uniform for ETTA umpires consists of two options with regard to the colour jacket or sweatshirt that can be worn.

The Navy Blue jacket must be worn at all National Championship events; the Royal Blue option is not permissible at National Championships.

OPTION 1.

Single-breasted jacket:	Colour: Navy Blue, Breast Pocket: no woven badge
Formal Shirt or Blouse:	White
Formal Trousers or Skirt:	Light Grey
Tie:	Official ETTA Umpires' tie in blue (when wearing a shirt)
Socks:	Black or Grey (when wearing trousers)
Shoes:	Black

or

Single-breasted jacket:	Colour: Royal Blue, Breast Pocket: ETTA woven logo badge
Formal Shirt or Blouse:	White
Formal Trousers or Skirt:	Light Grey
Tie:	Official ETTA Umpires' tie in blue (when wearing a shirt)
Socks:	Black or Grey (when wearing trousers)
Shoes:	Black

OPTION 2.

The following uniform can be worn at ETTA events only up to the level of a 4 Star Tournament

Sweatshirt:	Navy Blue with embroidered ETTA logo and the word 'UMPIRE'
Formal Trousers or Skirt:	Light Grey
Socks:	Black or Grey (when wearing trousers)
Shoes:	Black

See separate Order Form for obtaining the Sweatshirt

Umpires may wear a Navy Blue-coloured jacket which is easily obtainable from High Street suppliers and can often be found at reasonable prices. The Navy Blue jacket is also identical to the jacket forming part of the official ITTF uniform for international umpires, so can be worn for domestic and international tournaments. The Royal Blue jacket has formed part of the official uniform for many years; however difficulty of ease of supply and cost have on occasions proved to be problematic.

For details of suppliers of Umpire jackets see the document entitled 'Umpire Uniform Suppliers'.
